LO: To understand and use imperative verbs.

Imperative verbs are also known as 'Bossy' verbs. When you are using imperative verbs, you are usually giving someone instructions to do something. You cannot ask someone if they would like to do the step you are giving them, you tell them that they are doing it!

get, put, jump, pack, turn

These are just a few examples of imperative verbs.

Task

Mr. Chatterbox has made all Little Miss Bossy's sentences too long! They don't sound bossy anymore! Can you help Little Miss Bossy cut out words to turn them into sentences with bossy verbs? Remember! Bossy verbs and sentences sound like commands and instructions.

1. Please will you come and visit Egypt?
2. Could you carefully drive to the hotel?
3. Why don't you have a look at our wonderful pyramids?
4. When you are ready, go to the airport.
5. Please pack your suitcases.
6. Would you like to get on that camel?
7. If you would like to, you could go inside a real pyramid.
8. When you have time, try to see the treasures found in the tomb.
9. Please don't take any photographs.
10. I think you should turn right at the Sphinx, don't you?

Now you have helped make those sentences bossy, can you come up with your own bank of imperative verbs? Little Miss Bossy could do with about 20.
