

Read these split digraph words:

flute

Pete

escape

ripe

stone

explode

complete

We are going to practice reading and spelling these tricky words today.

Uncle Ed

Uncle Ed is very old. He likes to remember things he did in the past. With some action words or verbs we add Uncle Ed's name to change the verb to past tense.

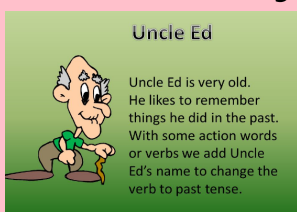

looked should

called could

asked would

Rearrange the letters to spell each of the tricky words.

o k l o d e

d l l a c e

k a s e d

d c l o u

u l s h o d

l u d w o

Have a go at spelling the correct tricky word to complete each sentence.

Uncle Ed

Uncle Ed is very old. He likes to remember things he did in the past. With some action words or verbs we add Uncle Ed's name to change the verb to past tense.

I _____ if it was lunch time yet.

Mrs Roberts _____ not open the door.

The pen was missing, so we _____ for it.

You _____ always try your best.

I _____ your name when I couldn't find you.

I _____ like to go shopping.

