Task: Write a diary entry for this scene.

You can be Gnomeo or Juliet.

Where did you meet?            What time of day was it?

What did they look like?      What did they say to you?

How did they make you feel?    What were you doing before you saw each other?

Were you in danger?

Here is the start of a diary entry from Juliet.

Dear Diary,

Last night, while the stars twinkled high in the midnight sky, I climbed to the top of the stone tower. All I could think about was Gnomeo. Why can't I love him without upsetting my family? I hate this fighting between the reds and blues. I couldn't believe it when I heard Gnomeo shouting up to me. Oh, how handsome he looked.

Here is the start of a diary entry from Gnomeo.

Dear Diary,

I found her at the top of the stone tower. Her eyes sparkled in the starlight. It was so exciting as I couldn't be found by her father. I've never seen Juliet look so worried. I wasn't scared. What would he do?
