Task: Plan a cartoon strip

Draw 8 frames in your book like a storyboard.

Write and draw your ideas for your comic strip story.

Use basic shapes to draw.

Add basic brief notes for speech and lettering to tell the story.

Watch the film again and think about the action you could draw in each frame. Stop the film to look in detail at a picture.

In frame number 1, draw the first scene. Frame number 8 should be the last scene.

You can use speech bubbles or thought bubbles. You can just draw a close up of the action.

Remember, you are just planning the cartoon strip today. But make sure it tells the story.

You will do the neat copy tomorrow.
